Kevin Lamoureux

M.P. for Winnipeg North
Liberal Party Citizenship and Immigration Critic
Liberal Party Deputy House Leader

- Served in the Manitoba Legislature for over 18 years.
- Served as a member of the Canadian Forces for over three years.

Kevin Lamoureux was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba in 1962. He got his first job when he was 11 years old, pumping gas for his father for $1 per hour.

He attended high school in both Manitoba and Saskatchewan and in 1982 signed up for service with the Air Command of the Canadian Forces. He served for three years.

In 1983, he married Cathy. They have two grown children, Raymond and Cindy.

After leaving the Canadian Forces, Kevin attended the University of Winnipeg part time while he worked at the Bay and at Caprice Distributors.

In 1988, he was elected for the first time to serve as Member of the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba. Since then, he has won more election victories than any other Liberal in Manitoba.

During his time as MLA, Kevin held more critic roles than any other MLA in recent history. He has championed important issues such as justice, immigration, labour, finance, education and housing.

In 2010, Kevin was first elected Member of Parliament for Winnipeg North. He was re-elected in May 2011.

In Ottawa, he is a vocal advocate for the needs of our communities. At home in Winnipeg North, Kevin has put people first: meeting with constituents every week at the local McDonald's, as well as holding public meetings on important issues like public safety and youth recreation.

Kevin is available every Saturday at the McDonald's Restaurant on Keewatin St. from 10am to 2pm
